Welcome to 1470 Halama Street, a rare beachfront estate on Maui's coveted Halama Street. This one-of-a-kind property offers unparalleled luxury, tranquility, and investment opportunities. With Maui County granting vacation rental use—no permit required—this home is a dream for luxury investors and second-home seekers alike. Situated on a spacious 12,118 sq. ft. lot, this home enjoys breathtaking sunsets, whale watching from your lanai, and direct access to miles of sandy beach. Remodeled in 2007, the single-level residence blends modern elegance with tropical charm. The expansive living room and primary suite offer floor-to-ceiling sliders. These seamlessly connect indoor and outdoor living spaces, framing breathtaking ocean views. The primary suite also boasts private lanai access, a spa-like soaking tub, and a large walk-in closet. The chef's kitchen is a masterpiece, featuring rich hardwood cabinetry, stainless steel appliances, and an open layout perfect for entertaining. The home includes two primary suites, a spacious third bedroom, and tile flooring throughout, ensuring comfort and style at every turn. The lushly landscaped property is perfect for entertaining, with shaded lanais and a private courtyard. A magnificent Monkeypod tree graces the front yard, adding to the natural beauty and privacy. Central air conditioning ensures year-round comfort, while the home comes fully furnished for a seamless move-in or turnkey rental.
