Casa En Maui stands among the most extraordinary residences in Hawaii, set along Maui’s most coveted stretch of sand—Keawakapu Beach. Conceived by legendary architect Ricardo Legorreta, this bold architectural statement spans over 21,000± sq. ft. with ~100 feet of pristine beachfront lanai, pairing modern geometry with Maui’s dramatic natural beauty. Panoramic ocean views, radiant sunsets, and a dynamic interplay of light and shadow enrich daily living with an ever-present sense of artistry. Reflecting pools and fluid indoor-outdoor design connect vivid courtyards, expansive communal spaces, and private suites, emphasizing function and style. Concrete, stone, and wood textures harmonize with Legorreta’s deft attention to light and movement, instilling a sense of wonder in each space. Sweeping volumes and double-height rooms showcase his signature drama, and terraces, balconies, spacious openings, and a cobalt blue lap pool align with Hawaii’s natural rhythms. The result is a residence that embodies island energy and beauty, elevating every aspect of daily life.
